Frequently Asked Questions:

What is a metabolic trigger?

A metabolic trigger means that LimuZ6 has a synergistic blend of nutrients that sets your nutritional assimilation process in motion to absorb the nutrients optimally, which in turn triggers your metabolism. This metabolic triggering may only take 10-15 minutes while others may experience the triggering within an hour.

What are the specific nutrient values of LimuZ6?

The specific ingredients of LimuZ6 are as follows: Acai Berry Pulp 4:1, True “First Milking” Colostrum6 powder taken within 6 hours after birth, 40:1 Laminaria Japonica powder, Pure Fucoidan extract at a 90% base factor, Clinoptilolite, Fucoxanthin and Acetyl-L- Carnitine. Additionally, LimuZ6 has the same electrolyte balance as sports drinks which activate immediately upon drinking. Regarding specific nutrient values – we do not disclose these values because they are proprietary in nature. All ingredients from LimuZ6 are bioavailable and are utilized in triggering the metabolism.

How is LimuZ6 manufactured?

One of the world’s most renowned formulators created this potent combination of LimuZ6’s most nutrient rich parts – 100% natural, no chemicals and no preservatives. LimuZ6 is manufactured and processed within our very own facilities to ensure that none of the valuable nutrients are lost.

What is LimuZ6 packaged in sachets?

We chose the sachets for several reasons – convenience, safety and protection. No foreign objects will ever get into the product and cause harm to the consumer. Sealed sachets provide a 100% light barrier which protects nutrients and potency. The sachets interior has been safety coated with an approved food-grade, plastic-free coating. Plus, you can take them with you on an airplane!

Frequently Asked Questions:

Why does LimuZ6 use Colostrum6?

Colostrum6 has been tested by Dr. Don Lein, Professor Emeritus, Cornell University, which has been ranked as the number one school in the world for testing colostrum. Dr. Lein specifically states that Colostrum6 is the ONLY true colostrum in the world based on the science of today and not the marketing hype that people use.

What sets LimuZ6 apart from other supplements, beverages and liquid dietary supplements?

Due to the ingredients and the formulation itself, the focus that LimuZ6 has isn't just as an "antioxidant"; it has those properties found within it. However, it focuses on four major systems of the body simultaneously; Immune/Nervous/Endocrine/Pineal. Research and analytical tests confirm that LimuZ6 has all the necessary components to allow the body to rebuild, reduce and repair; the next step to wellness isn't focusing just on antioxidants it is to focus on wellness for the entire body. LimuZ6 is the first supplement that does just that but with an emphasis on the major systems that provide long term wellness and health.

Does LimuZ6 lose any of the natural vitamins, minerals and nutrients from the effervescent process?

No, LimuZ6 is manufactured and processed using a unique stacked process that allows the ingredients to attach themselves to one another. Meaning, there is a synergy that happens when the blending of the ingredients occurs, which once activated by moisture activates all the ingredients together.

Is LimuZ6 organic, and does it have preservatives?

LimuZ6's ingredients are organically harvested – the way Mother Nature intended. We do not include preservatives other than a high quality, natural preservative found in lemons and limes – citric acid. Unlike synthetic vitamins, LimuZ6 is a pure, all-natural source of nutrition. Shelf life of up to three year's is expected, yet we recommend you take LimuZ6 daily for optimum cumulative benefits.
